

Getting ready for A-Level English Literature!

We're excited that you have chosen to do A-Level English Literature! It is a great course full of interesting genres and authors.

To deepen and expand your love for English Literature, please complete some of these suggested tasks. Choose the ones you are interested in; we don't expect you to do all of them.

Please email Mrs Rosario and Mrs Steedman (j.rawlins@holt.wokingham.sch.uk and k.steedman@holt.Wokingham.sch.uk) if you have any questions about A-Level English Literature.

| WATCH and LISTEN | READ | THINK |
|---|---|--|
| Watch 'She's the Man.' How does it link to Shakespeare's play 'Twelfth Night'? | Read some jokes. How do the punchlines work and consider why we find some jokes funnier than others. | How important is foolishness in Comedy? Use either examples from prose, TV or film. |
| Watch Line of Duty. How does it use typical Crime genre conventions? | Read a short story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle thinking about how it follows the conventions of a mystery/detective story. | How important is the detective in Crime Fiction? Use either examples from prose, TV or film. |